

It's a nice day.

You have a nice pen.

You find a nice coloring book.

It appears to be a book full of QR codes!

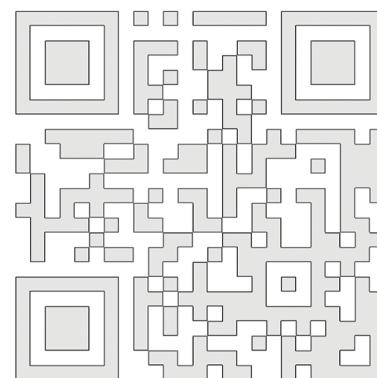

You open the book.

Upon closer inspection, each page seems to have the same QR code printed on it:

You feel compelled to color it in and find out where it leads...

Color in the QR code with a dark pen or marker.

Use your phone to scan the QR code and continue the story from the link it reveals.

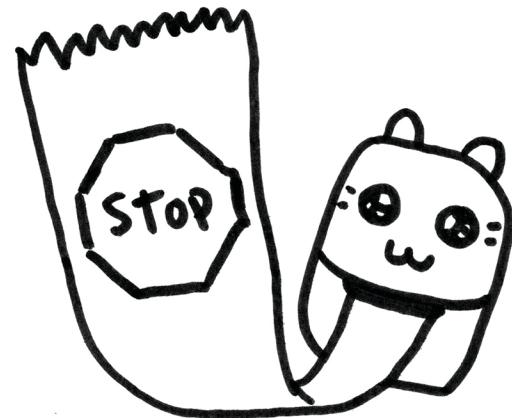

(If you're having trouble getting this to work, turn to the last page.)
